THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

Report of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton.

REMOVAL RECOMMENDED—CRUELTIES AND PECULATIONS OF BUREAU OFFICERS.

Our issue of yesterday contained a brief abstract of the report of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton, who were appointed by the President to investigate the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau in the Southern States. The report only embraces Virginia and North Carolina, but it is one of deep interest:

THE BUREAU IN NORTH CAROLINA.

FEELING TOWARDS THE BUREAU.

We found the feeling towards the Bureau much the same as that already stated as prevailing in Virginia, except that there appears to be a more universal desire in this department on the part of all classes to have it removed.—This feeling is no doubt attributable to the misconduct of many of the officers of the Bureau, such as working plantations, running sawmills, manufacturing turpentine and tar, &c.—operations which bring them, armed with authority of their official positions, into competition with the citizens who are employing freedmen.

We have investigated some of the charges made against officers of the Bureau, and in pursuing our enquiries on this point commenced with the Assistant Commissioner of the State, Colonel E. Whittlesey, to whom we addressed the interrogatory—"Do you know of any person in the military service now on duty with the Freedmen's Bureau in this department who is, or has been since entering upon the duties of his office, engaged or interested, either directly or indirectly, in the cultivation of any lands within the department?" He answered, "No." Subsequently he addressed us a note, hereto appended, in which he stated that, in order to assist the planters in hiring free labor, he and some other officers of the Bureau had loaned money, and thus indirectly had an interest in cultivating farms. On receiving this note we addressed Colonel Whittlesey further interrogations, a copy of which is hereto annexed, to which he replied in a communication, also hereto appended, disclosing the fact that he is interested as an equal partner with the Rev. Horace James, of Massachusetts, formerly captain and acting quartermaster Freedmen's Bureau, and with Mr. Winthrop Tappan of Maine, in the cultivation of a large farm in Pitt county, N. C. He also stated that Captain F. A. Seeley, Sup't. of the Bureau for the Eastern District of North Carolina, is interested in the cultivation of a plantation in Wayne county, N. C., with a Mr. Potter, and that Capt. Isaac Rosekranz, Commissary Subsistence, is interested with a Mr. Brooks in the cultivation of a plantation in Pitt county, N. C.

AFFAIRS AT NEWBERN.

On the 27th of April we left Ralegh for Newbern, the headquarters of Captain F. A. Seeley, Superintendent of the Bureau of the Eastern District of North Carolina. We at once proceeded to investigate the affairs of the Bureau and the conduct of its officers in this district. Captain Seeley was interrogated as to whether he was interested in any manner, directly or indirectly, in the cultivation of lands or in any other private business requiring the labor of freedmen. He answered that he was not, except indirectly in manufacturing lumber, having purchased or being about to purchase with two of his clerks a sawmill about forty miles down the river. Dr. Rush, medical purveyor, U. S. V., stationed at Newbern, and a Mr. Potter, a citizen, were subsequently examined, both of whom stated that Captain Seeley, Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau for the district, entered into partnership with them, about December last, in a contract to cultivate the farm of Mr. George Collier, a citizen of North Carolina, near Goldsboro.' They commenced operations by planting seven hundred acres of cotton and some corn; this work necessarily requiring the labor of a large number of freedmen. Dr. Rush stated that some two weeks since he had conditionally purchased the interest of Captain Seeley in this plantation, but had not yet consummated the contract. Mr. Potter stated that about a fortnight ago Dr. Rush, he himself and others had conditionally purchased a part of the interest of Captain Seeley, and that Captain Seeley still owned an interest in the plantation. Without being able to determine, from the testimony, how far Captain Seeley is interested in this plantation, it is perfectly evident that he prevaricated in his answer to our interrogatory.

FURTHER MISCONDUCT.

Captain Rosekranz, Sub-Agent of the Bureau at Newbern under Captain Seeley, and Commissary of Subsistence, as will be seen by reference to the paper hereto attached, is also engaged in cultivating a large plantation near Little Washington, N. C., with the labor of freedmen, whom he supplies with rations as a part of their wages.

[The committee then give an account of the stealings of this F. B. Capt. Rosekranz, which is too long to be copied here. They proceed:]

A SAMPLE OF CHRISTIANITY.

Opposite Newbern, on the south bank of the Trent river, there is a settlement composed exclusively of freedmen, and containing a population of about four thousand, whose condition is truly deplorable. These unfortunate people came within our lines and were located there during the war. They are living in small huts, built by themselves of lumber manufactured by hand; those huts generally containing but a single room, each of which is occupied in most cases by large families. The appearance of this settlement, recently scourged with the small-pox, is well calculated to excite the deepest sympathy for the helpless condition of its inhabitants. The decrepit and helpless among them are supported by the government of the United States, and the remainder procure an uncertain and scanty living from little jobs about Newbern—from fishing with small boats, huckstering, &c. The Rev. Mr. Fitz, formerly an army chaplain, presides over this colony as Assistant Superintendent of the Bureau for the Trent river settlement. This agent has exercised the most arbitrary and despotic power, and practised revolting and unheard of cruelties on the helpless freedmen under his charge. The outrageous conduct of this man was brought to our attention by a delegation of freedmen from the settlement, who called upon us and made statements in relation to his oppressions and outrages which we could scarcely credit. After hearing their statements we visited the settlement, convened the freedmen, investigated the charges against this man, and ascertained that he had been guilty of even greater wrongs and oppression than had been complained of. In addition to the testimony of the freedmen we took the statements of four intelligent ladies from the North, who are teaching school in the settlement. Among the many acts of cruelty committed by Superintendent Fitz, we found that he had in two instances suspended freedmen with cords around their wrists, their feet not touching the floor, and kept them in this position, in one case four, in the other case six hours; that he sentenced a freedman to an imprisonment of three months for a trivial offence, that of wrangling with his wife. He kept another man who was arrested for debt shut up in the block house—the prison—for months, while his wife and two children, reduced to abject destitution, died with the small-pox, and took him from the prison under guard and compelled him to bury his last child in the cradle in which it died. On another occasion, when one of his guards reported to him that a colored woman had spoken disrespectfully of him, without even inquiring what the woman had said, he ordered her to be imprisoned until the next morning at nine o'clock, when she should be brought before him to answer for the indignity. In one instance he imprisoned six children for ten days for playing in the streets on the Sabbath day. He imposed a fine of sixty dollars upon an aged freedmen, for having told another freedman that he was about to be arrested by Mr. Fitz. This poor old man, not having the money to pay the fine, was imprisoned until the next day, when his son paid the same, with three dollars additional as jail fees. * * * * * * *

The land upon which the huts in this settlement are built is owned by certain heirs in North Carolina, and is held by the Freedmen's Bureau as abandoned property. A tax which Superintendent Fitz says goes to the support of the Bureau is imposed upon the owner of each hut for ground rent. If the occupants fail to pay this tax promptly they are either turned out in the streets or imprisoned, and in some instances huts have been torn down by order of the Superintendent for non-payment of the tax. All business transacted by these people is taxed for the same purpose. Five dollars per month is levied upon every little shop; two dollars upon each horse and cart, &c. The failure to pay these taxes when due at once subjects the property taxed to confiscation. We were unable to ascertain what amount of money had been collected by Superintendent Fitz, or what disposition has been made of it. The imperfect manner in which his books were kept would have rendered a lengthy and detailed examination necessary to arrive at even an approximate idea of the amount of money collected. In answer to a question as to what justification there was for the oppressive burdens he had imposed upon these people, Superintendent Fitz replied that Captain Seeley told him, "I must have a thousand dollars a month from that settlement." He also furnished us with a sworn statement, herewith forwarded, marked "E," in which he attempts to defend his conduct by stating that he acted in obedience to the orders of his superior officers of the Bureau. * * *

While at Newbern, investigating the conduct of the officers of the Bureau, and the reported oppressions of the freedmen by this class of persons, our attention was called to the alleged killing of a freedman by a white employee of Colonel Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner of the bureau for North Carolina, and the Rev. Horace James, formerly assistant quartermaster, on their plantation in Pitt county. Mr. James, while in the United States service, was Superintendent of the Bureau for the district now under charge of Captain Seeley, and is now an agent of the Bureau, without pay, for the county in which he is planting. The circumstances under which this freedman was killed, as stated by Mr. James himself, were as follows:—The freedman was accused of stealing provisions from the store of Colonel Whittlesey and Mr. James, was arrested, tried and convicted by Mr. James, as agent of the Bureau, and was sentenced to dig ditches on their plantation.—While working out this sentence he ran away, and was pursued by James and his clerk, Boyden, who arrived at the bank of a river while the freedman was attempting to cross in a canoe. Boyden ordered him to return, telling him that if he did not he would shoot, and the freedman disregarding this order, Boyden fired. Boyden states himself that he thinks he hit him, and as nothing has ever been heard of the freedman since, it is generally believed in the neighborhood that he was killed and fell from the canoe into the river. These facts were stated in a letter forwarded to Colonel Whittlesey, who returned it to Captain Seeley, with the following endorsement:—

RALEIGH, March 28, 1866.

Respectfully returned. As the affair seems to have occurred at night, and, as the body of the negro has not been discovered, it does not appear certain that the shot took effect. No further action in the case seems to be called for.

By order of
Col. WHITTLESEY, Assis't. Com.
BEECHER, Assis't. Adj't. Gen.

STILL ANOTHER SAMPLE OF CHRISTIANITY.

At Goldsboro', the Superintendent, G. O. Glavis, Chaplain United States Army, is cultivating one farm on government account, and is interested in the cultivation of two farms on his own account. This officer stated in his examination before us that he was not interested in the cultivation of plantations, except indirectly by loaning money to a Mr. Brooks, a friend of his from the North, who was engaged in planting; but we ascertained from Mr. Carr and Mr. Lane, citizens of the vicinity of Goldsboro', that he is interested and joined with them in contract for the cultivation of their plantations. He and his friend Mr. Brooks entered into a contract with Mr. Lane to furnish rations and pay for forty laborers, and to provide eight good mules. Mr. Lane offered to furnish the land and to superintend in person the cultivation thereof, the crops to be equally divided, one-half to Mr. Lane and the other half to Mr. Brooks and Glavis. Mr. Lane states that the enterprise failed after the freedmen had worked over two months; they then left, Brooks and Glavis having failed to pay them according to contract. The freedmen received for their labor a little clothing, such as coats, pants, shoes, &c., furnished by Chaplain Glavis, and but little or no money. A similar contract was made by Glavis and Brooks with Mr. Carr, who stated to us that Chaplain Glavis is paying the hands in "a little of everything," but chiefly in clothing." * * * * * * *

We ascertained by the testimony of Messrs. Barham & Ballard, auctioneers at Goldsboro,' that they had sold at auction for Chaplain Glavis forty blankets marked "U. S." and a quantity of clothing that had been sent to Goldsboro' for gratuitous distribution to the needy by a Freedmen's Aid Society at or in the vicinity of Rochester, N. Y. We learned also that he had disposed of a large amount of such clothing at private sale. The chaplain stated himself that he had received from such sales two hundred and sixty dollars ($260,) though subsequently he asserted that the total cash receipts of his office from all sources amounted to one hundred and twenty-six dollars and fifty cents [$126 50.]

A NORTHERN PHILANTHROPIST.

Major J. C. Mann, Assistant Quartermarter, and financial agent of the Southern district, is engaged in the cultivation of a rice plantation a short distance from Wilmington, on which are employed fifty-five freedmen. The Major stated that while he would not object to making money, he engaged in this business to convince the Southern people that the negro would work.

IMPROVED SLAVE-DRIVING.

Major Charles I. Wickersham, sub-agent of the Bureau, whose headquarters are at Wilmington, is also interested in the cultivation of a rice plantation within his sub-district, and he is to receive one-fourth of the crops from the same for compelling the freedmen employed on said plantation to work faithfully. He explained the manner in which he compelled freedmen to comply with their contracts by stating that he put them to work with ball and chain on the streets of Wilmington. *

Such are some of the curiosities of this official report.

The commissioners close their report by repeating their recommendation that the services of the officers of the Bureau be dispensed with.

Ultra Abolitionism.

This, after all, is the evil genius of the Republic. We denounce Radicals and Radicalism—Black Republicans and Jacobins, but all the ills, which have befallen the Republic, have been the out-croppings of ultra abolitionism,—the result of the sleepless vigilance of that fanatical, persecuting, untiring, unrelenting, irrepressible, many-headed destroyer.

The South was long deluded by assurances of Northern Conservatives, that abolitionism was a myth,—a faction inconsiderable in numbers and influence. Its gangrene first broke up the Churches, rent asunder families and friends, poisoned the waters of social life, and finally subordinated the State governments of the North to its vile purposes. Still it was said, there is no danger!

Up to this period, the Federal government of the United States, moving in harmony with the governments of the States, presented to the admiration of the world "the best government on earth." Never, before, had the world witnessed a better government or a happier people. Never were the pursuit and enjoyment of happiness more promoted—never was a government more honored, nay idolized, by a people.—Though diverse in interest and uniting peoples not entirely homogeneous, yet they were one in their great aims and purposes, saving, alone, the adherents of ultra abolitionism. Ever working, ever active in its great purpose of changing the grand frame work of the Republic, abolitionism, having infested the Churches and social life, inoculated with its virus the host of political discontents, and by its powerful machinery cemented into one body conservatives, destructives and what not, that hated and opposed Democracy, and united the great North, as by hooks of steel, into what was popularized with the title of the Republican party. It is this party which abolitionized the government.

It was at this point, that the South so egregiously blundered. Tired of remonstrance, worn out with the encroachments of abolitionism, it was an evil hour when the South, hopeless of effecting a restoration of the government, sought to destroy rather than to restore—thought to rid itself of a party it could not hope to overcome. Abolitionism, having forced a conflict upon the South and having won, there remains but little hope of staying its wide spread ruin, save by a firm, decided, constant resistance at the ballot-box.

The late action of the Congress, and of the Reconstruction Committee, show how utterly subsidized to the unholy aims of ultra abolitionism the Radicals of the Republican party have become. Not content with the abolition of slavery and the pledges of the South to the preservation of their liberty forever, the whole character of the government must be changed, —all power must be centered in the government at Washington, nay in the hands of Congress alone,—the States reduced to the condition of deputies, in order to the full carrying out of the programme.

Thank Heaven! there is one hope left to the friends of the government. The Constitutional Union party, under the leadership of President Johnson, gives some hope, some promise, of defeating the aims of the enemies of American liberty and of the white man's government of our fathers. That government they have declared to be a "league with hell." President Johnson proposes to restore the government—to check and prevent the incorporation of new principles, which will prove destructive to it.—Let the people of the South rally around the President. Let the Constitutional Union party be the only party of the South, as opposed to Radicalism or ultra abolitionism, and let us all vie with each other in giving the strongest, and the most constant, moral support to President Johnson and his policy.

The Banks of the State.

The Charlotte Democrat, in alluding to our remarks some days ago, upon the effect of the late act of the Legislature, authorizing the Banks to close their business, says that a number of gentlemen, learned in the law, have expressed the decided conviction, that the objects of the act cannot be thwarted by the plea of unconstitutionality. If this should prove to be correct, none will rejoice more over it than we shall.

By the way, an eminent legal friend has promised us an argument upon the subject, fully sustaining the constitutionality of the act.

MORE RADICALISM.—It will be observed by reference to the abstract of Congressional proceedings elsewhere published, that a resolution was introduced in that august conclave on Monday, endorsing the President for having protected, by his veto power, the people of the country from the acts of wicked, malignant and mischievous men.

The resolution was considered as an insult to the immaculate concern, and a counter-resolution of censure was quickly framed, and as speedily passed, against the author of so grave an offence against the "wicked, malignant and mischievous" men of the nation. Nothing rubs like the truth.

The exports of cotton from New Orleans for the week ending the 5th were to England 4,400 bales, to France 3,500, to Spain 600; total 8,500. The stock at Mobile is 48,000 bales.

Disabled Soldiers.

We publish below, for general information, but especially for the benefit of the various County Courts of the State, the resolutions of the late Legislature in favor of disabled soldiers.

We have heretofore stated that his Excellency, the Governor, has entered into a contract with the Jewett Manufacturing Company, for supplying the maimed soldiers of the State with artificial limbs, under the provisions of the act authorizing him to do so. The Company are about to establish an agency in this City for the manufacture.

But these resolutions contemplate aid, not only to the soldiers, themselves, but to their destitute and dependent families. The proposition does credit to the generosity and humanity of the State, and is but an act of common gratitude to those who perilled their lives or impoverished their families in its defence.

We trust that the chairmen of the County Courts will not be backward in transmitting, by the time designated, the information called for.

RESOLUTION IN FAVOR OF CERTAIN DISABLED SOLDIERS.

Resolved, That the courts of pleas and quarter sessions of the several counties of this State, a majority of justices being present, are hereby authorized to levy and collect, as taxes, such amounts of money as may by them be deemed necessary for the relief of the destitute disabled soldiers of their respective counties; said money to be distributed under the direction of said court.

Resolved, That the chairman of each court of pleas and quarter sessions in the State be and he is hereby required to forward to the Governor of the State, on or before the first day of December next, a concise statement of the names and number of disabled soldiers who are citizens of their respective counties, showing the number of those who have lost legs, arms, or are otherwise disabled, in separate lists, together with a list of the destitute families or dependents of those who have died, with such other facts as may be of importance in investigating their claims to State aid; and the Governor shall report the same to the General Assembly at its next session. [Ratified the 10th. day of March, A. D., 1866.]

The Freedmen's Bureau.

We publish, on our first page, this morning, the greater part of that portion of the official Report of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton to the Secretary of War, which relates to the Freedmen's Bureau in North Carolina.

In view of Gen. Howard's declarations, to which we have directed attention elsewhere, concerning the "poor, vile, whiskey-drinking, gambling cut-throats," who, according to him, are now so sedulously cutting black throats, this report of affairs, as seen by Generals Steedman and Fullerton upon the spot, is most timely. It shows who are the most prone to inflict the outrages which Howard charges upon a portion of the Southern people. It lays bare, officially, (for, be it remembered, these statements emanated from no "disloyal" men or traitors,) the atrocities that are being perpetrated upon that unhappy race, who never knew grief until they fell into the greedy clutches of "philanthopists."

We presume that there are but few people in the South, who will not endorse the conclusions of the Commission, that the Bureau, as at present operated, tends to create prejudice against the government, is of no practical benefit to the negro, and that its officers should be withdrawn.

MEM:—In reading the report of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton upon the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau in North Carolina, it will be pertinent to remember, that the cruelties therein described as inflicted upon the Freedmen, were committed by the same class of men who were filled with such righteous indignation at the idea of whipping the "unhappy negro" for larceny, even though white men were similarly punished for the same offence! The "black and bloody code" of North Carolina exercised these sensitive gentry terribly! Oh! for a forty-stentor power, to chant thy praise, Hypocrisy!

THE SOUTHERN people are in a condition to appreciate and be won by a conciliatory policy, and they can be attached to the Government more firmly than they ever were before. Treated with dignified and generous forbearance, and equal justice, they would not fail to see that their interests lay in close alliance with, and support of, the Government. Their confidence once re-established could never again be shaken; there could be no possible danger of any future tumult, because the great exciting cause of hostility between the two sections has been removed and cannot be re-established. Instead of having a Government made up of discordant and opposing elements, we should have one which, from its strength, would be resistless in conflict, and strong from the devotion and attachment of all its citizens, and its exhaustless resources.

REV. DR. CRAVEN.—A note from this gentleman reminds us that his name was omitted in our publication of the resolutions passed by the North Carolina delegation, at New Orleans, in reference to the late Rev. D. B. Nicholson. The omission was no fault of ours. We copied it as we found it in the paper from which we clipped it, supposing that the resolutions were adopted by the delegation, during Dr. Craven's absence from the city.

The Dr. also advises us that several items of the summary of the doings of the General Conference, which we compiled from the secular press, are incorrect, as also some of our reflections upon them. The delay of the official papers was so great, that we deemed it best to give our readers the few items of interest we could glean from the secular press. We shall be obliged to Dr. Craven, or any member of the delegation, for a brief and correct account of the action of the Conference in regard to the changes effected.

We have the first intimation from the Dr., that we have received from any source, that no change was made in the name of the Church.

THE COLORADO BILL VETOED.—We learn, from the Progress, of last evening, that the President, on Tuesday, sent in his veto of the Colorado bill.

GENERAL O. O. HOWARD'S DESCRIPTION OF THE CONFEDERATES.—We dislike to give much prominence to an insane fanatic, but we cannot help quoting the following paragraph from General Howard's speech in New York, on Friday night, before a Freedman's Association. Here is the morceau describing Confederates:

You will find many of these men now agents of express companies, conductors and workmen on railroads, manning steamers, clerks in stores, keepers of boarding houses and hotels, and some actually at work in the fields. A few in almost every county have joined themselves to secret bands called "regulators," "nigger-killers," "jay-hawkers," or something of the kind. In Warrenton, Virginia, a short time ago, a band of them, composed partly of sons of men of some note, and partly of a lower class of rowdies, with stones and other missiles, broke the windows of a room where a young lady from New Bedford, Massachusetts, was teaching a colored school. The citizens afterwards met together and deprecated this outrageous conduct, and assured the young lady protection; but I learn that neither the civil power nor the moral force of public sentiment proved sufficient to save her from a second cowardly assault at her lodgings. A similar band met together in the Shenandoah Valley, waylaid a brave teacher and ordered him to leave the State. This he declined to do, and the mean, unmanly rowdies rushed upon him and beat him nearly to death. It is these that drove the lovers of peace from Randolph county, North Carolina; that have burned colored churches in Maryland, Alabama and Louisiana; that have shot negro soldiers in almost every State. They are poor, vile, whiskey-drinking, gambling cut throats, who find their counterpart in the bank-robbers, pick-pockets, highwaymen and murderers of the North. When the clergy and the ladies of Southern society—who are described by our inspectors, officers, travelers and correspondents as "so bitter in their hate,"—when they shall return to the normal condition of Christians and preach and practice Christian love, these vile miscreants will not be so bold: they will not assume the airs of proud, independent aristocrats, while they are guilty of conduct that outrages every feeling of humanity and honor.

We remember well the address of this Gen. Howard before the members of the State Convention, in this city, when it was last in session. To have heard him, then, one would have supposed that his philanthropic bosom was overflowing with the milk of human kindness for our people. We distinctly recollect his declaration that he recognized the Southern whites as, after all, the best friends of the negro, and his indignant disclaimer that he could ever be influenced by partisan or sectional prejudices in his private or public conduct. He had all the unction and suavity of a Chadband or a Pecksniff,—but it turns out that he is as great a hypocrite as either of Dickens' models.

Important.

We learn that the Public Treasurer has given an opinion, that the County Court has no power to tax those persons and subjects of taxation, which are not listed. Their power of taxation is confined to the subjects mentioned in Schedule A. of the Revenue act.

We will lay Mr. Battle's opinion before our readers to-morrow.

GOLD closed in New York, at the latest advices, at 130½. Cotton was firm at 34 @ 35 cents.

In Baltimore, on the 15th, flour was quiet and firm at previous prices. Corn had declined one cent. There were sales of white at 86 @ 87 cents, and yellow at 81 @ 82 cents.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Senate was principally engaged upon the bill to prevent smuggling on the Northern frontier, which provides for a rigid system of search and examination of all vessels plying between the United States and foreign countries.

The House adopted a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the expediency of so altering the existing law as to abrogate the tenure of office at the pleasure of the appointing power, and to make it subject only to the conditions of good behavior.

Mr. Stevens introduced a resolution for the appointment of a committee of three members of the House to investigate the Memphis riot. The resolution was passed.

Mr. Chanler, of New York, offered a resolution endorsing the President for having, by the exercise of his veto power, protected the people of the country from the acts of wicked, malignant and mischievous men. The House refused to entertain the resolution.

Mr. Schenck then offered a resolution of censure against Mr. Chanler for the insult offered to the House by the introduction of his resolution, which, after a brief address by Mr. Chanler in vindication of his course, was agreed to—yeas 72, nays 50.

Ex-President Davis.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 14.—It is understood, as the result of Secretary McCullough's recent visit, that President Johnson has directed the post surgeon to make a special report of the health of Jefferson Davis, and it is confidentially said that during the past twelve months the unceasing tramping and changing of the guards around his cell has prevented him from enjoying at any one time more than two hours unbroken sleep, and that his health is failing rapidly. He confessed extreme pleasure when the news of his indictment reached him, confident that speedy action in his case will follow.

A correspondent says: "I have seen in the papers that Solomon Pool has been appointed one of the United States Tax Assessors for North Carolina. Is this the Rev. Solomon Pool, now one of the Professors of the University? If the Rev. Professor be the appointee, I think it speaks well for the loyalty of the University, that in the scarcity of men able and willing to take the oath required of United States officers one should be found in its Faculty. The appointment is doubtless a good one.

If there are other Professors with records as unstained as Professors Pool's must be, loyal parents need have no fear that treasonable doctrines will be instilled in their minds of their sons, and it is certainly of the highest importance that our children should be correctly taught. I repeat, that it must be gratifying to loyal parents who have sons at the University, to have this tangible evidence that our time-honored University is in safe hands."—Wil. Journal.

GENERAL NEWS.

UNCONFIRMED CIVIL OFFICERS—THE REPUBLICAN OPPOSITION TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes:

There is believed to be a bare majority of the Senate in favor of the adoption, in a separate bill, of the negative amendment to the post-office appropriation bill, inhibiting any payment to civil officers appointed by the President, unless confirmed by the Senate. Such a bill will pass both Houses and be vetoed by the President.

"Those of the republicans in the House who voted against the previous question upon the constitutional amendment represent the republican opposition to the third section. But a majority of these opposed it because it was too conservative. They would go for a proposition of perpetual exclusion of all who were voluntarily engaged in the Confederate service.

The House will not take up the bill accompanying the amendment till the Senate shall have acted upon the amendment. It is the general belief of the members of the House that the amendment will fail in the Senate for want of a two-thirds vote. New projects for restoration are to be offered in the House by republican members.

Mr. Morrill expects to get through with the internal revenue bill by the end of this week, and the tariff will come next. The Senate and House will be thinly attended this week.—Many members have gone home, and both houses are jaded and wearied of the work.—They would close the session without any plan of reconstruction if their constituents would permit them to do it.

ARRIVAL OF SANTA ANNA—AN IMPORTANT MISSION.

Gen. Santa Anna, of Mexico, arrived at Elizabethport, N. J., on Saturday, by the steamer Georgia, from St. Thomas. He is accompanied by several South Americans. The New York Post says:

It is understood that the object of the General in visiting the United States is to unite his efforts with those of the liberal party of Mexico in expelling Maximilian from the country. In a few days he will issue a manifesto to the public explaining his previous conduct in relation to Mexican affairs, and expressing the objects of his future course. Gen. Santa Anna will once more, it is announced, risk his fortune and person in behalf of Mexico. He declares that he is not seeking for power, but will place himself under the leadership of President Juarez. Gen. Santa Anna will remain at Elizabethport for several days, when he will come to New York. It is understood that a public meeting will soon be held at Cooper Institute, at which he will be present.

When Mr. Eldridge, Democrat, of Wisconsin, a respectable member of the United States House of Representatives, rose to a point of order the other day at Washington, he was greeted by a storm of hisses from the negroes in the gallery.

THE COTTON TAX.—There was a meeting of the New York Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, in relation to the proposed increased tax on cotton by Congress. The report of a special committee remonstrating against any further increased tax upon this staple was adopted unanimously. Ex-Mayor Opdyke, Cyrus W. Field, Judge Marvin and others warmly opposed any increased taxation, and were of opinion that the interests of the entire country, and the Southern States especially, would be injured by the adoption of the proposed measure.

It is probable that the investigation of General Steedman in South Carolina will disclose a state of affairs among the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau there, similar to that discovered in Virginia and North Carolina. Our despatches from Washington state that private information is received to the effect that General Ely, the Commissioner for that State, is engaged in the working of five plantations on his own account, and furnishing his laborers with government rations.

Gen. Beauregard arrived at Barnum's in Baltimore, Sunday evening, and will leave New York for Liverpool to-morrow, (Wednesday.)—He is President of the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad, and goes abroad to procure financial aid for the company. Among the thousands who called upon him in Baltimore was Gen. Joseph E. Johnston.

COTTON CROP IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Charleston Courier says the planters in the vicinity of that city are much encouraged at the good prospects for obtaining large crops of cotton. A number of Northern capitalists have recently invested in cotton lands, while not a few have turned their attention to the lumber business.

Dr. Livingstone, the indefatigable American explorer, has proceeded on another expedition, and has been heard from as safely arrived at Zanzibar. He proposes to penetrate further into the interior than heretofore, having good health, and in every way prepared for his perilous journey.

The New York Herald, of Thursday, has a sketch of the bombardment of Valparaiso, only equalled by the picture (frontispiece) of the landing of Raleigh's colony in Wheeler's History of North Carolina.

A negro was fined fifty dollars the other day in Montgomery, Alabama, for breaking his contract with his employer, and sent to jail in default of payment.

The Jacksonville (Fla.,) Times says that a thousand of negro children are now educated in that State by their employers, who were slave owners.

Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday, May 17, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Davis & Kilburn, corner of Wilmington and Hargett Streets, will keep constantly on hand a supply of Northern block ice.

B. P. Williamson & Co., announce a variety of articles.

See Card of National Express Co.

The pews in Christ Church, Raleigh, belonging to the Church, will be rented on the 1st prox.

THE GEE TRIAL.—The Court was not in session on Tuesday.

Wednesday's proceedings will appear to-morrow.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The Ladies of the city, pursuant to agreement, will meet at the Senate Chamber, this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a permanent society for the preservation and care of the graves of our gallant dead. There will, of course, be a full attendance. The ladies never falter in a good or virtuous work.

THE "PROGRESS"—Our city cotemporary has passed, by purchase, into the hands of Capt. Henry E. Orr, (a gallant officer of the "so called,") and J. Julius Guthrie, Jr., under whose Editorial auspices it will hereafter be conducted. Capt. Orr has had charge of the local department of the Progress for a year past, and has filled the position acceptably and well. He is a sprightly and experienced paragraphist, and will doubtless fill his new role in an able and satisfactory manner. We extend to both gentlemen our best wishes for their success. We are gratified to infer, by the following extract from the well written salutatory of the new Editors, that the course of the Progress will be marked hereafter by a different spirit from that which has heretofore characterized it:

"It is our desire to avoid profuse promises as to the future course of the paper under the new regime. We do not hesitate to avow, however, that "THE PROGRESS" will accord to the policy of President Johnson cordial, unhesitating support, qualified only by the consideration that he is to maintain the administration of the government upon the broad, national, conservative principles announced in the peace proclamation and similar executive documents. If the Union must be preserved, it should owe its integrity only to the distinct recognition, by all parties, of the binding force of a constitution to which all the States have agreed."

THE BAPTIST REVIVAL.—The Pastor of the Baptist Church in this City gives an interesting account, in the Bibical Recorder, of the progress of the recent revival in that denomination. It has closed after six weeks of continuous labor. More than one hundred persons,—about an equal number of whites and blacks,—have been added to the Church. The writer gives the following encouraging resume of the prospects of the Baptists in Raleigh:

"They have a large and commodious house of worship, worth, in currency, $50,000, with a membership of about 600, half of each color. The white Sabbath School numbers over 350 scholars and a valuable and faithful corps of teachers. Also a colored Sabbath School of about 300, taught by the same white teachers.

They also own a square in the heart of the city, which was purchased and is still intended for the purpose of erecting suitable buildings for a first class Female Seminary. If the terms are such as can be accepted by the directors, they may have the property restored by the Freedmen's Bureau, who have had the control of it, and still have, without rent, for the past year."

NATIONAL EXPRESS CO.—It will be seen by the advertisement, in another column, that the National Express and Transportation Company has introduced into its business a novel and very important feature, by which large additional security is guaranteed to all shippers of money and valuable packages. It has effected arrangements with a number of leading Insurance Companies, by which the entire contents of the money chests of the Express Company are insured against common carriers' risk. In addition to the liability of the Company for all losses, the shipper has, therefore, the further security of these well-known Insurance Companies, whose capital and surplus assets represent a total value of about $15,000,000, and who, by the transportation policies now issued, place themselves, in fact, in the stead of the Express Company, and bind themselves to make good all losses for which it, as common carrier, can be held responsible.

ANOTHER COURT-MARTIAL.—A Court Martial has been convened in this city, and is now in session, for the trial of Capt. A. M. Garoutte, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. V., for irregularities in the administration of his official duties.

BISHOP ATKINSON.—We learn, from the Goldsboro' News, that this distinguished divine preached in Goldsboro, on Sunday last, and administered the rite of confirmation to seventeen persons.

The health of the Bishop continues to be so feeble, that his physicians pronounce it indispensable that he should temporarily suspend his Diocesan labors, and seek recuperation in European travel.

NEWBERN.—The sickness of the Senior Editor has prevented his giving an account of his recent visit to Newbern.

SMALL POX.—This disease has made great havoc among the colored population of Newbern and vicinity. Almost every second or third man you meet on the streets has had it, and hundreds have died with it. Yet it occasions no alarm or uneasiness.

GASTON HOUSE.—This excellent Hotel, in Newbern, owned by W. P. Moore, Esq., and under the superintendence of Mr. J. J. Jones, is one of the best Hotels in the State. During our short visit to Newbern, we enjoyed its excellent fare and accommodations.

ENCOURAGEMENT TO COTTON PLANTERS.—Those enterprising merchants, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern and Wilmington, showed us, the other day, a beautiful cup made of solid silver and lined with gold, which they design presenting to the grower of the first bale of cotton brought to market of this year's crop. They have two cups of the same character, to be presented at their stores in Newbern and Wilmington.

FUSS AMONG CITY FATHERS.—The Newbern Commercial, of the 15th, says:

"A somewhat exciting scene took place at the Council board, on Saturday night, growing out of the following circumstances, as we learn them from parties who were present: Two negro men were arrested and taken to the Mayor's office, about the time of the meeting of the Board of Council, who sit in the same apartment. The Mayor was about to order what should be done with them, when one of the negroes dashed off at full speed. The Mayor rushed out and called upon the City Marshal to fire upon the flying prisoner. The Marshal suggested that it was dangerous to fire in the dark—that if the escaping negro was not killed some other innocent person might be. For this the Mayor informed the Marshal he was suspended; and on the assembling of the Board the Mayor announced what he had done. Some exciting discussion followed, and the affair resulted in the passage of a resolution, offered by Dr. Menninger, and by a unanimous vote, declaring the City Marshal in office, and that he remain so, till otherwise ordained by the Board."

Maj. Geo. W. Collier announces himself as a candidate to represent Wayne county in the approaching Convention, vice Col. J. T. Kennedy, resigned. The election takes place to-day.

LARGE LUMP OF GOLD.—The Editor of the Statesville American has been shown a lump of gold, taken from one of the mines of P. C. Carlton & Co., which weighs five pounds, and is worth about $1,325. It was found about three feet under the surface. The American says:

"Mr. Carlton showed us another lump which was obtained from the same mine which weighs four ounces. The former is the largest lump of gold which has been found in the State since 1828.

We believe that North Carolina, taken all together, has better mineral resources than any one of the States, and that all that is necessary is to develope them."

WHEAT CROPS IN WESTERN N. C.—A correspondent of the Salisbury Banner, writing from the mountains, says:

"Wheat crops look very promising. It is believed by old farmers here, that more than an average crop will be realized, if nothing providentially occurs to destroy the crop till harvested."

For the Sentinel.

To the Trustees of the University.

As I have heard no intimation of the intention of Mr. Pool to resign his Professorship, I beg leave to call your attention to the following paragraph in the Standard of the 12th:

"We had the pleasure of seeing Rev. Solomon Pool, of Chapel Hill, in the City on yesterday. Mr. Pool is the Chief Assessor for the 4th District, and is engaged in organizing his District preparatory to assessing the federal taxes. Mr. Pool will no doubt make an efficient and faithful officer."

The question I wish to submit for your consideration is, whether the incumbent of the office of U. S. Assessor can properly discharge the duties of a Professor at the University at any time, and whether, at this particular time, it be not especially difficult. Mr. Pool does not take charge of a department already organized, with its machinery in regular operation, and with a clerical force familiar with its duties, but he has to inaugurate and perfect the organization of his department and the instruction, as well of his subordinates, as of the public generally, in the nature of the relations existing between the tax payers and the tax gatherers.

I have been taught to believe, that the conscientious discharge of the duties attaching to a Professorship imposed so onerous a burden as to render its tenure incompatible with that of any other office, and having been so taught, my regard for my Alma Mater constrains me to bring the matter to your notice.

The Legislature, last winter, very wisely and very generously, granted the appropriation asked for by the University as necessary to preserve its existence. Would it have been, if it had been known it would be used to pay the salary of a Professor, who was absent from his post, and as it appears in Raleigh, "organizing his District?" If he devotes his time to the assessorship, ought not Mr. Pool to look to it for his salary? I do not intend to be understood as calling in question the fitness of Mr. Pool for either place. I intend simply to say, that, it seems to me, the performance of the duties of one position is incompatible with the performance of those of the other, and that if Mr. Pool has accepted the assessorship and yet has not sufficient regard for the University to resign his Professorship, it is a fit case for the interposition of the authority of the Trustees.

DAY BOOK OFFICE,
NORFOLK, VA., May 13, 1866.

Editors Raleigh Sentinel:—I received from some friend a copy of the Tri-weekly Standard, of May 12, and, although I have been cognizant, from the public papers of the day, of much of the public course of the Editor of the Standard and Ex-Provisional Governor of North Carolina, I was not prepared for the high stand taken in this paper by the Editor, Provisional Governor, and so on, as an unconditional Union man, now and always.

You probably know, gentlemen, that I used to be connected with the Whig and Union press of North Carolina, and, though now "old and somedeal gray," my natural force is not abated in that good cause. I love the Union yet, as our fathers made it, and as I always sought to preserve it against destructives and Nashville Conventionists of the old day; and when I see one of them pluming himself upon devotion to that cause for sustaining which, with all my might, he denounced me as a submissionist and abolitionist, and a traitor to my country for not going with him for secession and disunion in '47-'8-'51, it provokes my special wonder.

In those days, I still think, I did "the State some service." I am ready to lay down my life in her defence now,—against all such devoted Union men of the present day, who, when the trouble they had spent many years of their lives to bring on, came upon the good old State, deserted her in her hour of need, and sold themselves to those who did deny, and even yet deny, to her, the just rights she was first to declare belonged to her, and which she gallantly gained in successful revolution. That she did not maintain them, in the late war, I suppose, is owing to just such deserters of her cause as this Editor and Provisional Governor.

I am, gentlemen, your old friend and acquaintance,

CH. C. RABOTEAU.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 8th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. The Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is sole agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Bateford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. More letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden, Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 66 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the pace of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain; her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time; has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him those Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to $200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the so called quack nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box till taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.
